Vancouver Campus Parking Permits: Terms & Conditions

APPLICANT INFORMATION

(i) You agree to provide accurate, current, and complete information, including vehicle information, required to purchase a parking permit; you further agree to maintain and update the aforementioned information as required to keep it accurate, current, and complete.

(ii) Applicants for permits must provide the applicant’s full name and e-mail address, and, where available, phone number.

(iii) Applicants for permits must provide the make, colour and government issued license plate number of any and all vehicles to be registered under the permit.

CRITERIA FOR PERMIT QUALIFICATION

(i) Applicants must be licensed to independently drive a motor vehicle in North America or carry an International Driving Permit.

(ii) Applicants must make payment in full of any outstanding fees on account, including parking fees or UBC Traffic Notices associated with the applicant, prior permits and/or the vehicle(s) registered to a permit prior to purchasing a permit.

(iii) UBC Faculty and Staff qualify for Faculty & Staff Permits unless enrolled in UBC credit courses whereby they qualify for Student Permits or, if enrolled as a Graduate Student, they qualify for Graduate Student Permits.

(iv) Undergraduate and Unclassified students enrolled in UBC credit courses qualify for Student Permits unless residing in a residence maintained by UBC Housing & Community Services whereby they qualify for Resident Permits.

(v) Graduate students enrolled in UBC graduate level credit courses qualify for Graduate Student Permits unless residing in a residence maintained by UBC Housing & Community Services whereby they qualify for Resident Permits.

(vi) Retired Faculty granted Emeritus Status by the UBC Senate and Retired Staff that are members of the UBC 25 Year Club qualify for Emeritus/25 Year Club parking privileges.

(vii) Contractors and construction staff working on projects on the UBC campus for greater than 30 days qualify for Contractor status.

(viii) People that volunteer for a UBC department or permanently work at the UBC campus for a company that supports UBC or is positioned on the campus, qualify for Campus Affiliate status.

(ix) Many permits require more specific qualifying criteria than listed in this section; see the permit section of this document for further details.

USAGE RULES

(i) Use of the parking permit is conditioned upon the applicant’s prior acceptance of the terms of this agreement.

(ii) You agree that your permit is issued to you, the applicant, as the permit holder and only for the vehicle(s) registered under the corresponding permit. A permit is not transferable to, another person and may only be transferred to another registered vehicle.

February 18, 2022

(iii) You agree that your permit may only be used in one parking facility with one vehicle at any given time. If two or more vehicles are parked at the same time under one permit, all vehicles may be issued a Traffic Notice each in accordance to provision “12(k) Non-Compliance with Permit Conditions” of the UBC Traffic and Parking Rules, as there is no way to determine which vehicle should be assigned the usage of the permit when both are parked at the same time.

(iv) You agree that UBC Parking and Access may restrict permit access to a specific parking facility during special events or facility maintenance; where such access has been restricted UBC Parking and Access Control will make another facility available for you to park your vehicle.

(v) You agree to take responsibility for any vehicle that you attach to your UBC Parking Account and/or UBC parking permit including any traffic notices issued to the vehicle until it is removed from our account.

(vi) You agree that your permit may have a limited number of vehicles associated. Once the maximum number of vehicles is reached, a customer must remove at least one vehicle from the parking permit before adding a replacement vehicle. Registering a vehicle to your UBC parking account will not automatically add the vehicle to the parking permit if the maximum number of vehicles has been reached. The maximum number of vehicles that can be associated to your permit can be viewed in your UBC Parking Account.

PAYMENT METHODS

(i) On-line purchases and payments may be made with Visa and MasterCard; Payroll deduction is available to UBC Faculty and Staff when purchasing certain permits posted during the sales process as being eligible for payroll deduction.

(ii) In-office purchases and payments may be made with Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Debit. Payroll deduction is available to UBC Faculty and Staff when purchasing certain permits posted during the sales process as being eligible for payroll deduction.

AGREEMENT TO PAY

(i) You agree to pay for all products and services purchased on-line or in-office. Where your permit has been used for parking services without payment, UBC Parking & Access will charge any additional amounts (including any taxes and late fees, as applicable) to your parking account.

(ii) UBC Parking & Access reserves the right to change prices and availability of products. Prices and availability of any products are subject to change at any time.

(iii) YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOUR ELECTRONIC SUBMISSIONS CONSTITUTE YOUR AGREEMENT AND INTENT TO BE BOUND BY AND TO PAY FOR SUCH AGREEMENTS AND TRANSACTIONS. YOUR AGREEMENT AND INTENT TO BE BOUND BY ELECTRONIC SUBMISSIONS APPLIES TO ALL RECORDS RELATING TO ALL TRANSACTIONS YOU ENTER INTO ON THIS SITE, INCLUDING NOTICES OF CANCELLATION, POLICIES, CONTRACTS, AND APPLICATIONS.

THIRD PARTY LIABILITY

Where a third party purchases permits for distribution to more than one driver, they may issue those permits, at no additional cost, however they assume all liability and responsibility for those permits for the duration of their valid term of date.

REFUND/CANCELLATION POLICY

Certain parking permits are refundable with applicable conditions; for further information refer to specific permit section of this document for details.
